Announcement.

Yielding to the wishes of friends in many quarters of the Ninth Congressional District, I have concluded to submit my name as a candidate for the nomination for Congress, subject to the will of the Republican Convention to be held at Augusta June 13th.

THOMAS A. DAVIS.
Mayville, Ky., May 18th, 1894.

THE LEDGER has never said anything about the Democratic Senate half as tough as this, from The Courier-Journal:
The tobacco rehandlers of this city have discovered a section in the Tariff Bill which they say would work irreparable damage to the industry in Kentucky if enacted. The big Manufacturers' Association, or Trust, is believed to have secured the incorporation of the section into the bill. If there is any monopoly, trust or protected interest that has not secured recognition in the miserable makeshift the Senate is dawdling over, name it.

In the Tariff Bill now under discussion by the Senate there is a reduction amounting to $38,000,000 on articles of pure luxury, such as laces, cosmetics, liquors, paintings, silks, gloves, etc., while $50,000,000 is to be raised by a duty on sugar. In other words, the breakfast table of every man, woman and child in the United States is to be taxed in order to allow the gamblers cheaper playing cards, the dudes cheaper gloves and our pretty ladies cheaper foreign cosmetics and perfumery. And for years these demagogues have been howling that the burdens of taxation ought to be imposed upon luxuries that are used by the rich. The McKinley Law taxes all luxuries, admits sugar free, and, until Democrats threatened to repeal it, raised enough revenue to support the Government.

It is, perhaps, not strange that Governor FLOWER of New York should denounce as an expression of "sickly sentimentality" the Lawson Bill passed by the Republican Legislature providing that no Flag but the American should be displayed on public buildings except upon occasion when foreign officers and dignitaries were the guests of the United States, of the state or of any city. If reports, apparently well substantiated, are true, Governor FLOWER never was deeply attached to the American Flag, and, like GROVER CLEVELAND, he failed to go to the defense of the Flag when it was in danger. Perhaps he viewed the patriotism of those who did go to the front as "sickly sentimentality," and he is said, indeed, to have used even stronger language regarding the soldiers.

The demand that the American Flag—the Flag of New Orleans, of Gettysburg and of Appomattox—the Flag that floated over the Union troops on every battlefield of the war, shall float alone over public buildings, is much more than "sentimentality." The Governor is mistaken if he imagines that he pleases foreign-born citizens by his veto of the Lawson Bill. The large majority of foreign-born Americans believe in the American Flag, and the American Flag alone. They believe that the allegiance of every citizen is due to the Republic, and that the Flag is the symbol of that Union to which every citizen, native or adopted, owes complete and undivided loyalty. Foreign Flags have no more right on public buildings in the United States than Flags other than the British would have on the Guildhall in London.

The weather being very changeable it is well to be prepared. Any size Tarpaullin wanted from six feet to one hundred feet square if desired. Frank Owens Hardware Co. make them, and warrant them positively Water Proof.

While Mr. T. J. Ritchey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.
